The soulful styling of James Austin Jr. reveals his jazz pedigree and gospel roots. Originally from Chicago, he is an accomplished pianist and band leader. Amongst other honors, he was a semi-finalist in the prestigious Thelonious Monk International Jazz Piano competition. He has curated and led the NJPAC Jazz Jam series since its inception. Songs in the Key of Wonder, James debut album, showcases his tasteful instrumental arrangements of a selection of classic compositions from the songbook of the great Stevie Wonder. James regards Stevie Wonder as one of the greatest composers of our time.

This concert of one of the New York Metropolitan area's most respected jazz pianists is free and open to the public. You must come in person to enjoy this concert, it will not be on Zoom and it will not be recorded.
