

461 VALLEY ROAD, WAYNE, NJ 07470

973-694-4272 x5401

Foreign Film Discussion Club

PURPLE NOON

(Plein Soleil)

Language: French (brief sequences in Italian & English)

Director: René Clément

Starring: Alain Delon, Maurice Ronet

Wednesday, May 22, 2024 @ 7:00 PM

Register online to receive the Zoom information:

<https://waynepubliclibrary.libcal.com/event/11200755>

Email Patty Slezak, Reference Librarian, for more information and to receive the Zoom invite: slezakp@waynepubliclibrary.org

Not Rated

117 minutes

1960

Synopsis: An adaptation of Patricia Highsmith's novel The Talented Mr. Ripley, Tom Ripley is a duplicitous American charmer in Rome on a mission to bring his privileged acquaintance Philippe Greenleaf back to the United States; what initially seems a carefree tale of friendship soon morphs into a thrilling saga of seduction, identity theft, and murder.

Before the meeting, participants will watch the film on their own;
this title is available to all participants for FREE through Internet Archive:

<https://archive.org/details/purple-noon-1960>

It is available on DVD at the Wayne Public Library and another library in PALS Plus.